

Welcome to Our Company

RCR Associates, LLC., is a dynamic and aggressive electrical manufacturers' representative agency, established in 2005. By driving sales and services through distributor, contractor and end user relationships, we meet our manufacturer's goals of incremental sales growth, increasing market share and improved profitability, while enhancing customer service to maintain and increase discretionary business through our distribution partners. Our corporate offices are strategically located in nearby Warren Township, New Jersey to effectively market electrical products, and provide technical support throughout the New York City, Long Island and Northern New Jersey region.
